

Monday, September 16

(All talks at the Sharp Lecture Hall)

- 9:00 Welcome by Interim President - Ed Stolper
9:10 Welcome by Ken Farley, GPS Division Chair
9:15 Some introductory comments on the History of the PS Option at Caltech: Dave Stevenson
9:40 The First Decade (organized by Tom McCord)
Tom McCord, Ken Watson, Alex Goetz, Hugh Kieffer, Torrence Johnson,
Jim Cutts, Dennis Matson, Jeff Cuzzi
10:20 Coffee Break
10:40 First decade resumes
11:35 Mike Malin
A Personal Perspective on the Division's Role in Mars Exploration
12:10 Lunch break
1:30 Carolyn Porco
A Decade at Saturn
2:05 Jonathan Lunine
A tale of three C's: Caltech, Clathrate and Coleridge
2:40 Bryan Butler
The Long and Short of It: The Importance of Long Wavelength Observations to Planetary Science
3:15 Coffee Break
3:35 Adam Showman
TBA
4:10 Poster Talks outside Arms (current planetary science students and postdocs)

Tuesday, September 17

All talks in Sharp Lecture Hall

- 9:00 am Mike Brown
Tasting the Salts of Europa
9:40 am Bethany Ehlmann
Aqueous Environments During Mars' First Billion Years: The View from Rovers and Orbiters
10:20 am Coffee Break
10:40 am Heather Knutson
Beyond Hot Jupiters: Exoplanetary Atmospheres Across the Mass and Temperature Spectrum
11:20 am Konstantin Batygin
Resonant Excitation of Hot Jupiter Spin-Orbit Misalignments